POST REGISTRATION OFFICE ACTION

Receipt on April 18 2003 is acknowledged of a response to the Office letter of February 20 2003 regarding the Renewal Application. The Combined Section 8 & 9 Renewal is further refused in view of the following:

Office records indicate the registration is owned by Process Systems Intl. Inc. not Chart, Inc., the party who filed the Section 8 Affidavit.

The party who filed the Section 8 Affidavit must establish current ownership of the registration at least as early as October 31 2002, the date the Section 8 Affidavit was signed. 37 C.F.R. §2.161(a). Ownership may be established by (1) recording appropriate documents in the Assignment Services Division, (703) 308-9723, or (2) submitting proof of the transfer of title to the party who filed the Section 8 Affidavit. 37 C.F.R. §3.73(b).

(1) If the present owner chooses to establish ownership by recording appropriate documents in the Assignment Services Division, please notify the undersigned paralegal when the documents have been filed. A telephone call to the paralegal is encouraged to resolve this issue.
(2) If the present owner chooses to establish ownership by submitting proof of the transfer of title, appropriate evidence, such as a copy of the document transferring ownership or a verified statement that a valid transfer of legal title has occurred, must be submitted. Please be advised that the Section 8 Notice of Acceptance will issue in the name of the original registrant or the last recorded assignee as recorded in the Assignment Services Division.

If the wrong party filed the Section 8 Affidavit and there is time remaining in the statutory filing period, the current owner may file a new affidavit. If the new affidavit is filed during the 6-month grace period, the owner must pay the filing fee for the Section 8 Affidavit plus the grace period fee. If the wrong party filed the Section 8 Affidavit, and there is no time remaining in the statutory filing period, the registration will be cancelled.

RESPONSE TO REFUSAL TO SECTION 8 AFFIDAVIT AND SECTION 9 RENEWAL

Dear Ma'am:

Registrant of record, Chart, Inc., hereby responds to the Action of February 20, 2003 refusing entry of the filed Section 8 Affidavit of Use and Section 9 Renewal Application on the basis that the chain of title for the mark is incomplete. More specifically, the post-registration examiner states that there is no record on file to show ownership of the registration being transferred from CVI Incorporated, to Barnebey-Cheyney Company, thus clouding title. As set forth below, to the best of registrant knowledge, there was no assignment from CVI Incorporated to Barnebey-Cheyney Company, and even if such an assignment was made, it is inconsequential as the current chain of title is complete to CVI, Incorporated.

As is shown in the enclosed database printout from the Saegis trademark search service, the current registration was registered in the name of Cryovac, Inc. On January 3, 1967, Cryovac, Inc. changed its name to CVI Corporation. This is indicated as Step (1) on the enclosed printout. CVI Corporation assigned its rights in this registration to CVI Incorporated—as indicated in Step (2) on the enclosed printout. The remainder of the assignment history from CVI Incorporated to Chart, Inc. apparently is not in dispute.
This leaves one with the assignment from Barnebey-Cheyney Company to CVI Incorporated, as indicated by the (*) on the attached database printout. While it is unclear where Barnebey-Cheyney obtained its rights to the current registration, such issue is inconsequential. There is a clear chain of title from Cryovac, Inc. to CVI Corporation to CVI Incorporated, without taking the apparently rogue assignment into account. The Registrant would also note that the assignment from Barnebey-Cheyney was recorded after the assignment from CVI Corporation to CVI Incorporated. The Registrant would also note that the last time this registration was renewed, it was renewed to CVI Incorporated.

In conclusion it is believed that a complete chain of title currently exists for this registration. The assignment from Barnebey-Cheyney in no way breaks such chain. As such, the examining attorney should allow the Section 8 and 9 documents, as filed.

If the named examiners or others at the Post-Registration division wish to discuss this matter in further detail, particularly the chain of title for this registration, they are invited to contact the undersigned at their earliest opportunity.

It is not believed that any additional fees are due at this time however any fees should be debited and any overpayments should be credited to Deposit Account Number 18-2284

Respectfully submitted,

RESPONSE TO POST REGISTRATION OFFICE ACTION

Dear Ma'am:

Registrrant of record, Chart Inc., hereby responds to the Office Action of May 29, 2003, refusing entry of the filed Section 8 Affidavit of Use and Section 9 Renewal Application on the basis that Office records indicated the registration is owned by Process Systems International Inc. and not Chart Inc., the party who filed the Section 8 Affidavit.

In response to the Office Action, enclosed is a copy of the Certificate of Merger whereby Process Systems International, Inc. merged with and into Chart Inc. As a result, it is believed that a complete chain of title currently exists for this registration and that the Section 8 and 9 documents should be accepted as filed.

If the named examiners or others at the Post-Registration division wish to discuss this matter in further detail, particularly the chain of title for this registration, they are invited to contact the undersigned at their earliest opportunity.

POST REGISTRATION OFFICE ACTION

The Combined Section 8 Affidavit and Section 9 Renewal Application submitted on November 6 2002 is refused for the following reason(s):

The records of the Assignment Branch of the Patent and Trademark Office do not show a clear chain of title. There is no record on file to show ownership of the registration being transferred from CVI Incorporated to Barnebey-Cheyney Company. The present claimant must establish a complete chain of title by: (1) recording appropriate documents in the Assignment Branch or (2) submitting proof of the transfer of title. See attached copies.

It is also noted that a document was filed for recording in the Assignment Branch of the Patent and Trademark Office. Alternately, Counsel may submit a copy of the document to be placed in the file.

If the present claimant chooses to establish ownership through recordation in the Assignment Branch, the claimant must notify the undersigned when the document or documents have been filed for recording. The filing of a document in the Assignment Branch does not stay the six-month period for responding to this action.
If the present claimant chooses to establish ownership by submitting proof of the transfer of title, the claimant must submit evidence of such transfer. Appropriate evidence may consist of a copy of the document transferring ownership from one party to another or an explanation, supported by an affidavit or a declaration under Trademark Rule 2.20, that a valid transfer of legal title has occurred.

COMBINED DECLARATION OF USE IN COMMERCE UNDER SECTION 8 & APPLICATION FOR RENEWAL OF REGISTRATION UNDER SECTION 9

✓ Chart Inc., a Delaware corporation, having a place of business at 5885 Landerbrook Drive, Suite 205, Cleveland, Ohio 44124, hereby requests that Registration No. 740,009 be renewed in accordance with the provisions of Section 9 of the Act of July 5, 1946 (as amended).

The above-identified mark is still in use by Chart Inc., in interstate commerce in connection with all the goods identified in the Certificate of Registration for this mark, namely the following goods in International Class 011:

Cryogenic pumping systems, cryogenic processing equipment, and related components such as cryogenic fluid handling accessories and panels.
Renewal Applicant obtained the mark by assignment recorded on December 2, 1994 at Reel/Frame 1254/0364 and merger on March 30, 2000; request to record merger filed concurrently with this renewal application.

A specimen for each class showing the mark as currently used by Renewal Applicant is enclosed herewith.

The undersigned hereby appoints Jeanne E. Longmuir and James Balazs all members of the Bar of the State of Ohio, all attorneys with Calfee, Halter & Griswold LLP, with the full power of substitution, association and revocation, to prosecute this combined declaration of use and renewal application, to transact all business in the United States Patent and Trademark Office and in the courts, to receive the Certificate of Renewal and to receive all other correspondence in connection with this registration.

Renewal Applicant requests that correspondence in connection with this application be directed to:

James G. Pierce states that he is President of CVI Corporation, a Ohio corporation having a place of business at 930 Kinnear Road, Columbus, Ohio 43212; that CVI Corporation owns Registration No. 740,009 issued October 30, 1962; that the mark shown therein has been in continuous use in interstate commerce for five consecutive years from October 30, 1962, to the present for cryogenic pumping systems, cryogenic processing equipment, and related components such as cryogenic fluid handling accessories and panels and that said mark is still in use in interstate commerce as evidenced by the attached specimen showing the mark as currently used; that there has been no final decision adverse to declarant's claim of ownership of the mark or to its right to register the same or maintain it on the register; and that there is no proceeding involving any of said rights pending and not disposed of either in the Patent Office or in the Courts.

The undersigned declares: That all statements made herein of his own knowledge are true and that all statements made on information and belief are believed to be true; and further that the statements were made with the knowledge that willful false statements and the like so made are punishable by fine or imprisonment,

AMENDMENT

This is in response to the first Office Action dated May 16, 1962. Please amend the application as follows:

Please change the description of the goods to read --

(cryogenic pumping systems, cryogenic processing equipment, and related components such as cryogenic fluid handling accessories and panels).

REMARKS

The identification of the goods has been amended so as to be more definite. It will be noted that the goods of the present invention are particularly directed to space-age cryogenics.

In the treatise "Cryogenic Engineering", by Russell B. Scott, published by D. Van Nostrand Company, Inc., New York, first published March 1959 under contract with the United States Atomic Energy Commission, page 1, the following statements are made:

"Cryogenic engineering deals with the practical application of very low-temperature processes and techniques. These temperatures are below those usually encountered in refrigerating engineering."

"It is rather difficult to assign a definite temperature which will serve as the dividing point between refrigerating and cryogenic engineering, but it will probably conform to present usage to say that cryogenic engineering is concerned with temperatures below -150°C."

Hence, it will be noted that cryogenic pumping systems are very definite structures to those skilled in the art of space-age cryogenics. Further, since the United States Atomic Energy Commission has found it impossible to accurately pinpoint the temperatures which are considered to be "low temperatures", the present designation of the goods should be satisfactory. As pointed out above, the temperatures are generally below -150°C.

The applicant is enclosing herewith, and at the request of the Examiner, a plurality of samples of advertisements or promotional material dealing with the goods on which the instant mark is used. The here-enclosed materials are identified as Exhibits A through G. The Examiner's attention is directed to page 1 of Exhibit B which points out that the equipment can be utilized at temperatures as low as 9° Kelvin.

In view of the above and the here-enclosed material, it is submitted that the subject mark is in condition for publication. An early publication is respectfully requested.

Respectfully submitted,

[Signature]

NOTICE OF PUBLICATION UNDER SECTION 12 (a)

The application identified above has been examined and it appearing that applicant is entitled to Registration, the mark will in accordance with Section 12 (a) of the Trademark Act of 1946, be published in the Official Gazette on the date indicated above for the purpose of opposition by any person who believes he will be damaged by the registration of the mark. If no notice of opposition is filed within the time specified by Section 13 of the statute, or by Rules 2.101 and 2.102 of the Trademark Rules, the Commissioner of Patents may issue a Certificate of Registration.

Copies of the Trademark portion of the Official Gazette containing the publication of the mark may be obtained at 20 cents each from the Superintendent of Documents, Government Printing Office.

To the Commissioner of Patents:

CryoVac, Inc., an Ohio corporation, d/b/a CryoVac Incorporated, having a principal place of business at 930 Kinnear Road, Columbus 12, Ohio has adopted and is using the trademark shown in the accompanying drawing for pumping systems, low temperature-processing equipment, and related components and requests that said mark be registered in the United States Patent Office on the Principal Register established by the Act of July 5, 1946.

The trademark was first used in June, 1961; was first used in interstate commerce in June, 1961; and is still in use in such commerce.

The mark is used by applying labels affixed to the goods and five specimens showing the mark as actually used are presented herewith:

The changes hereinafter specified have been made in the above identified application in accordance with the provisions of Order Number 5297 of May 11, 1950, which reads in part as follows:

Obvious informalities in the Statement of the application including the Classification of Goods and Services, may be corrected by the examiner, but said correction must be in the form of an amendment, approved by the Principal Examiner in writing, placed in the file, and made a part of the record. The changes specified in the amendment will be entered by the clerk in the regular way.

If the changes set forth below are not satisfactory to the applicant, appropriate amendment may be submitted under the provisions of Rule 2.74, provided the printing of the registration has not been commenced at the time such amendment is approved.

The application has been amended as follows:

Applicant's goods as specified in the amended identification are considered to be proper for Class 31, rather than Class 23. The classification is hereby changed to Class 31.

G.R. LEADER: amm

Div. I Examiner.
The present identification of goods is not acceptable because it is not sufficiently definite. Additional information as to the nature of applicant's "pumping systems" and "low temperature processing equipment" is requested. In what kind of industry are applicant's goods used? In order to clarify the identification of goods, applicant is requested under Rule 2.61(b) to submit samples of any available advertisements or promotional material dealing with the goods on which the instant mark is used.

A search of the Office records fails to show that the mark, when applied to applicant's goods, is confusingly similar to any registered mark.

HELUM REFRIGERATION SYSTEMS

CRYOVAC, INC.
930 KINNEAR ROAD
COLUMBUS 12, OHIO

PHONE 486-9535
The CryoVac Model He-Series Helium Refrigerators are completely packaged, low-temperature facilities which provide cold gaseous helium refrigeration for any process requiring cryogenic temperatures as low as 9° Kelvin.*

The only units of their kind ever designed specifically for low temperature refrigeration, they can be utilized in a number of applications including:

- Cryopumping
- Neon or hydrogen liquefaction
- Hydrogen recondensing for bubble chambers
- Maser refrigeration
- Electronic apparatus cooling

*can be modified to produce liquid helium.
The CryoVac Helium Refrigerators answer the cryogenic industry's need for ruggedly built, dependable, low-temperature cycles. Not laboratory curiosities they are designed to maintain a continuous flow of high-pressure, cold helium gas on a twenty-four hour a day - seven days a week basis.

Fully assembled, the HE-Series refrigerators are compact, skid-mounted packages requiring no extras - they can be easily installed, easily moved. They are shipped complete after receiving a complete run-in and thorough testing at the factory. The entire front panel of the skid is a graphic control panel on which are mounted all principal valves and controls needed for convenient operation.

Performance

All models are conservatively rated. The Model HE-1000-2 which is typically illustrated on the accompanying graphs has a minimum capacity of 1000 watts of refrigeration at 20° Kelvin. It provides a flow of 350 lb/hr. of helium gas at 40-55 PSIG. The cycle is a closed system, incorporating a single stage expansion engine, operating between 285 PSIG and 45 PSIG. A predetermined temperature level is selected and the cycle will automatically maintain this level at varying external loads within its designed capacity.

Specification for the Model HE-1000-2

Compressor is an 8 x 5 1/2 straight line two stage, two cylinder unit with non-lubricated glass-filled teflon packings. Capacity is 150 CFM, inlet pressure 58.8 psia and temperature of 75°F.

Expansion engine is a 3 1/2 x 5 single stage, single cylinder helium type unit with inlet conditions of 280 psig, 22.8\textdegree K and 350 lbs/hr. at a speed of 300 RPM.
REFRIGERATION VS. TEMPERATURE

Heat exchanger is a proprietary CryoVac design, built specifically for helium refrigeration systems.

Silica Gel Purifier is equipped with heaters and is connected to the system's central vacuum pump for regeneration purposes. Temperature is monitored and controlled during regeneration with an indicating controller.

The cold portions of the cycle are in two vacuum insulated cylinders, one containing the high temperature section of the heat exchanger and the purifier and the other containing the low temperature section of the heat exchanger and the expansion engine. These are designed so that all components are accessible for maintenance and repair with a minimum amount of disassembly.

The transfer lines for the refrigerated helium are fully vacuum jacketed incorporating the latest type "super-insulation" and provided with fully vacuum jacketed cold valves of proven design. All joints in these lines are close tolerance bayonet-type joints, also proven by long experience to give the lowest possible heat leak.

In order to provide stable operation with refrigeration loads varying all the way from 0 to 1 kilowatt, a heater is placed in the helium return line from the load with a vapor pressure thermometer in the same line. A Minneapolis-Honeywell pneumatic controller, actuated by the vapor pressure thermometer, controls the heat input to the heater to maintain the return gas temperature at a preset level, which is the maximum temperature allowable in the cryopump panels, in this case 20°K. This temperature may be varied over a range of plus or minus 2-3°K as desired.

The cycle is fed with helium gas from a low pressure line and storage vessel. Regulation of the low pressure will be automatic with a regulator on the storage vessel. Control of the high pressure side is accomplished by manual regulation of the speed of the expanders, and also by automatic relief valves between the high pressure line and the gas storage tank. Other automatic devices in the system include a liquid level control for the purifier, overspeed protection on the expander, and various safety valves and protective shut-offs consistent with good practice on this type of equipment. It is assumed that the customer will supply the gaseous helium required for start-up and testing of the cycle.

As shown in the outline drawing, the entire system, except for the compressor, is a skid-mounted package, fully assembled, and factory checked for performance before shipment. The entire front panel of the skid is a graphic control panel, on which is mounted all principal valves and controls needed for operation. The graphic panel shows the flow diagram and functions of all the controls. Pressure gauges on this panel monitor pressure at twelve points in the system, and temperature is monitored in the purifier, at the inlet and exhaust of the expanders, and at the return point from the cryopanels.
The unit is also available for remote operation, in which case a remote console is provided, and operation of the unit can be carried out from the main panel on the skid, or from the remote console.

ADVENT . . . NIMBUS . . . RANGER . . . during the months and years ahead extensive scientific data will be gathered from these and other satellite systems circling about or with the earth. Extremely complex, extremely sophisticated, these space vehicles must of necessity be put through tests simulating as closely as possible the spacial environment. Cold beyond comprehension, searing heat, ultra high vacuums — these are some of the conditions that must be simulated. CRYOVAC, the leader in the field of space-age cryogenics, has built and is building most of the cryogenic systems required to achieve these conditions. Satellites like Advent and Nimbus will be orbited only after hours and hours of grueling punishment in space simulators, the design and construction of which CryoVac played an important part. The experience and know-how gained in testing and building these sophisticated test facilities are at your disposal. Why not get in touch with CryoVac at your earliest convenience.
Space environment built to order. As a result of the emphasis on space age research, man has accomplished feats never dreamed of just a few short years ago. One of the more unique of these is his ability to simulate the spacial environment—he can literally package a piece of space in an earth-bound container. CryoVac, a leader in space-age cryogenics has been one of the pioneers in space simulation. CryoVac has played a major role in the design and building of most of the space simulators in existence today—simulators in which the conditions of outer space—cold, heat, vacuum—can be reproduced to an almost exact degree. Many of the complex space vehicles now in orbit or soon to be placed in orbit have been or will be exhaustively tested in such simulators. There is no substitute for experience and CryoVac has this experience. Let us put it to work for you. Write or call CryoVac at your earliest convenience. Inquiries from qualified scientists and engineers regarding employment opportunities are invited.
HELIUM REFRIGERATORS

Cryovac has developed a series of highly efficient designs and modular configurations. These are designed for a wide range of applications, including cryogenic systems, research, and industrial cooling processes.

NITROGEN SYSTEMS

A complete line of nitrogen systems is available from Cryovac, designed primarily for use with the latest cryostats and attached or stand-alone cryomagnetic systems. These systems are built around a variety of materials and configurations to suit a wide range of applications. The models are available in both single and multi-stage designs, suitable for laboratory and industrial use. Pictured above is the Model LN-150, a 100 kW rated, dual stage liquid nitrogen system. For further details on Cryovac’s line of nitrogen systems, contact Cryovac or look at the catalog for more information on models and configurations available.

[Can be modified for producing liquid helium]
Space-age cryogenics is a relatively new science. Born of the demands of the space age it was a marriage of the art of space simulation with the science of cryogenics. The history of CryVac can be traced to the advent of space-age cryogenics. As James S. Pierce & Associates, Limited, and later as CryVac, Incorporated, the company was involved in the design and manufacture of equipment for both cryogenic and non-cryogenic projects. More than 90% of CryVac’s activities have been involved in the design and manufacture of equipment for basic cryogenic projects throughout the country. CryVac’s qualifications, moreover, extend beyond that of space simulation. Its diversity of ability and breadth of scope encompasses a much larger field. CryVac designs, fabricates, and installs a wide variety of systems, equipment and facilities involving cryogenics. The ability and scope of CryVac can be described with one word: people. Its list of people includes some of the earliest researchers in the field of cryogenics. It includes scientists and engineers, some of whom have more than fifteen years experience in the field. CryVac is proud of the achievements of its employees, not only a few, but one of the world’s leading research centers for advanced technology. CryVac’s research and development laboratory, prototype shop and a modern manufacturing area, complement the design and engineering capability.

SCOPE: The scope of CryVac is indeed extensive. It includes an almost limitless capability in the field of cryogenics. Basically, it encompasses three main areas of endeavor: Systems Engineering, Contract Research and Development, and Construction of useful cryogenic hardware. CryVac is the only firm that can provide this broad range of services. CryVac’s ability in the field of Systems Engineering is unmatched by its competitors. It not only designs, fabricates and installs the various cryogenic systems and facilities, but serves as both project manager and team member on countless projects. In order to do this CryVac has established a capability to conceptualize, design, develop, fabricate, install, and maintain the large, complex cryogenic systems used by the space industry. CryVac is also a major supplier of cryogenic equipment. Its equipment includes the cryogenic systems used by the space industry. CryVac is also a major supplier of cryogenic equipment. Its equipment includes the cryogenic systems used by the space industry.

The problems of the space age are numerous. New techniques, new materials, and new developments are constantly being devised in a never-ending endeavor to increase the efficiency of the cryogenic systems used in space simulation. CryVac, with its ability to conduct research and development work on a contract basis, is actively involved in the development of new materials and new techniques. CryVac is capable of solving the complex problems posed by the space industry. CryVac is able to design and build systems that meet the rigid requirements of the space industry. The USPTO may assign design search codes, as appropriate, to new applications and renewed registrations to assist in searching the USPTO database for conflicting marks. They have no legal significance and will not appear on the registration certificate.

Design search codes are numerical codes assigned to figurative, non-textual elements found in marks. For example, if your mark contains the design of a flower, design search code 05.05 would be assigned to your application. Design search codes are described on Internet Web page http://www.uspto.gov/tmdb/dscm/index.html.

Response to this notice is not required; however, to suggest additions or changes to the design search code(s) assigned to your mark, please e-mail TMDesignCodeComments@USPTO.GOV. You must reference your application serial number within your request. The USPTO will review the proposal and update the record, if appropriate. For questions, please call 1-800-786-9199 to speak to a Customer Service representative.

Design search codes assigned to the referenced serial number are listed below.

RESPONSE TO POST REGISTRATION OFFICE ACTION

Dear Ma'am:

Registrant of record, Chart Inc., hereby responds to the Office Action of May 29, 2003, refusing entry of the filed Section 8 Affidavit of Use and Section 9 Renewal Application on the basis that Office records indicated the registration is owned by Process Systems International Inc. and not Chart Inc., the party who filed the Section 8 Affidavit.

In response to the Office Action, enclosed is a copy of the Certificate of Merger whereby Process Systems International, Inc. merged with and into Chart Inc. As a result, it is believed that a complete chain of title currently exists for this registration and that the Section 8 and 9 documents should be accepted as filed.

If the named examiners or others at the Post-Registration division wish to discuss this matter in further detail, particularly the chain of title for this registration, they are invited to contact the undersigned at their earliest opportunity.
The Commissioner is hereby authorized to charge the deficiency surcharge of $100.00, and the payment of any other fees associated with this communication, to Deposit Account Number 18-2284

IN THE UNITED STATES PATENT AND TRADEMARK OFFICE

MARK : CVI and Design
REGISTRANT : Chart, Inc.
REG. NO. : 740,009
REGISTERED : October 30, 1962
CLASS NO. : 11

Honorable Assistant Commissioner for Trademarks
2900 Crystal Drive
Arlington, Virginia 22202-3513
Attention: Patricia A. Everett
Post Registration Division

RESPONSE TO REFUSAL TO SECTION 8 AFFIDAVIT AND SECTION 9 RENEWAL

Dear Ma'am:

Registrant of record, Chart, Inc., hereby responds to the Action of February 20, 2003 refusing entry of the filed Section 8 Affidavit of Use and Section 9 Renewal Application on the basis that the chain of title for the mark is incomplete. More specifically, the post-registration examiner states that there is no record on file to show ownership of the registration being transferred from CVI Incorporated, to Barnebey-Cheyney Company, thus clouding title. As set forth below, to the best of registrant knowledge, there was no assignment from CVI Incorporated to Barnebey-Cheyney Company, and even if such an assignment was made, it is inconsequential as the current chain of title is complete to CVI, Incorporated.

As is shown in the enclosed database printout from the Saegis trademark search service, the current registration was registered in the name of Cryovac, Inc. On January 3, 1967, Cryovac, Inc. changed its name to CVI Corporation. This is indicated as Step (1) on the enclosed printout. CVI Corporation assigned its rights in this registration to CVI Incorporated—as indicated in Step (2) on the enclosed printout. The remainder of the assignment history from CVI Incorporated to Chart, Inc. apparently is not in dispute.
This leaves one with the assignment from Barnebey-Cheyney Company to CVI Incorporated, as indicated by the (*) on the attached database printout. While it is unclear where Barnebey-Cheyney obtained its rights to the current registration, such issue is inconsequential. There is a clear chain of title from Cryovac, Inc. to CVI Corporation to CVI Incorporated, without taking the apparently rogue assignment into account. The Registrant would also note that the assignment from Barnebey-Cheyney was recorded after the assignment from CVI Corporation to CVI Incorporated. The Registrant would also note that the last time this registration was renewed, it was renewed to CVI Incorporated.

In conclusion it is believed that a complete chain of title currently exists for this registration. The assignment from Barnebey-Cheyney in no way breaks such chain. As such, the examining attorney should allow the Section 8 and 9 documents, as filed.

If the named examiners or others at the Post-Registration division wish to discuss this matter in further detail, particularly the chain of title for this registration, they are invited to contact the undersigned at their earliest opportunity.

It is not believed that any additional fees are due at this time however any fees should be debited and any overpayments should be credited to Deposit Account Number 18-2284

Respectfully submitted,
